

PART Resource Guide for Link PARTners

Webinars

Hour-long, online seminars that focus on a wide range of topics critical to child welfare practice. PART uses innovative technology to connect its members with world renowned child welfare leaders. During a webinar, participants are able to engage with presenters in real time. On-demand access to archived events is available on the PART website. Audio-only downloads of archived webinars is also available for easy listening on your portable audio device.

Live webinar format: web-based platform with audio and PowerPoint presentation

Archived webinar format: audio only MP3 –OR- full web-based platform recording

Relevant guides: Guide for Webinar Facilitation

E-library

PART members have easy access to the ProQuest E-library that provides access to databases covering the international literature in the social sciences. Together, they provide abstracts, indexing and full text coverage of journal articles, books, book chapters, dissertations, working papers and more, including over 1,000 important social science journals.

Format: web-based library, download PDF copies of articles

Relevant guides: ProQuest Tip Sheet, Critical Thinking Guide, Guide for Discussing Research in Supervision

Guidebooks

Designed to support evidence-informed practice in child welfare by offering practical and innovative tools and videos, PART's guidebook series is developed with the guidance and collaboration of an advisory committee consisting of child welfare experts and practitioners.

Format: MP3

PARTicles

Concise literature reviews on relevant and important child welfare topics emerging from the field, PARTicles provide practitioners with up-to-date research on substantive topic areas and capture client/consumer, practitioner and academic perspectives. PARTicles can be used by child welfare practitioners for a multitude of purposes.

Format: PDF

Relevant guides: Critical Thinking Guide, ProQuest Tip Sheet

Conferences

PART conferences, or Learning Events, bring together child welfare practitioners and leading academics to share knowledge and experience on the full range of topics in child welfare. These events are simultaneously webcast and stored in PART's on-demand archived to increase accessibility.

Format: archived conference PowerPoint presentations available for download

Interactive Case Studies

This learning tool aims to enhance and promote critical thinking among child welfare practitioners by asking questions about case decisions that encourage reflection and exploration of relevant practice issues.

Format: interactive web-based module

Relevant guides: Critical Thinking Guide

Storyboards

These short videos use a unique animation technique to convey complex ideas in a clever way. PART produces a series of storyboard videos that highlight several important aspects of child welfare practice.

Format: video

Relevant guides: Critical Thinking Guide

PARTcasts

This podcast series collects narrated versions of notable literature reviews from the PARTicle archives. PARTcast episodes can be downloaded to your portable audio device or streamed directly from the PART website.

Format: MP3

Relevant guides: Critical Thinking Guide, ProQuest Tip Sheet

Research Radio

PART's second podcast series features one-on-one interviews with the world's leading child welfare researchers. Research Radio episodes can be freely downloaded through iTunes (no PART membership required) or streamed directly from the PART website.

Format: MP3

Strategies for Research Radio use from other LPs:

Ask a Researcher

This resource enables practitioners to request support from PART staff to interpret research findings and literature, and refine research questions.

Format:

Relevant guides: ProQuest Tip Sheet, Critical Thinking Guide, Critically Assessing Research Studies, Some Key Things to Know about Quantitative Research Methods, Guide for Discussing Research in Supervision